Mick-y Finn be - longed to the Mi - li - tia, (Wish-n) Mick-y Finn was Mick-y Finn's an - ces - ters all were: I - rish (Irish) Mick-y Finn was born right o - ver here, three cheers. Mick-y had no brogue, till ex - ci - ted, then the Yan - kee thro' and thro', true blue. Way down in his heart, sure he loved the dear old rogue; The I - rish cropt right out of him, You ought to hear the shout off him, When he heard a - dart, Hell sing the Ri - ver Shannon flows, Then soak a ger - man on the nose, Neighbors stood out bout the war, _____ Straight for homesweet home he tore.

in the hall, _____ They could see the ger - mans fall, _____

Bust-ed in the old front door,
Faith said one God help them all,
And like a li-on he did roar:
When they heard mick-y loud-ly ball;

Chorus
Will ye get me, me old brown kha-ki, Will ye dig up me old slouch hat, hey Pat! Will ye go and get me gun, 'till I take it on the run, Un-cle Sam is wait-in' for me, Ding-it! what's the mat-ter, Will ye roll up one old gray blan-ket, I'm just spoil-in' for a fight, For the hon-or of old Er-in' and the Stars and Stripes I'm wear-in', Look out for the I-rish to - night, Will ye night.
